

TRUDY PELLETIER FEA, CEC

Licensed Facilitator and Trainer

Trudy Pelletier is the president of Trudy Pelletier Consulting Inc. She specializes in facilitating difficult conversations with a coach approach style. Her skills are sought after by leaders interested in optimizing people and performance.

She guides and facilitates the succession and continuity planning process for private family enterprise and partners in business. She coaches families, teams, and leaders through conflict to transform communication, rebuild trust and restore relationships. She helps leaders create governance and teaches consensus decision making. She supports leaders to navigate highly charged issues and recurring challenges such as gender parity in leadership. She creates conversational environments such that each person is seen, heard and understood.

Trudy is a trainer and facilitator with an extensive training background in leadership and communication. She is a designated family enterprise advisor, mediator, and Certified Executive Coach who draws on decades of experience to cultivate understanding bringing the difficult issues from the background into the foreground. She is trained in several leadership assessments and is licensed in Empowering Men and Empowering Woman, material relevant for all genders.
